

Price's The Woolworths Choir of 1979

McQueen's dizzying journey around the Statue of Liberty to Francis Alÿs trailing a drumstick along London's Regency railings.

Tate Britain, SW1 (020 7887 8888, tate.org.uk) until August 12

CANARY WHARF SCREEN SEASON 2: ANIMATE PROJECTS

A vast screen in the vast downstairs ticket hall of Canary Wharf Tube station is showing commissions by four leading video art producers. From next week, it is the turn of Animate Projects, who specialise in experimental animation.

Canary Wharf station, E14 (020 7027 8694, art.tfl.gov.uk), May 31-August 26

ELIZABETH PRICE

The Woolworths Choir of 1979: last chance to see this Turner Prize-shortlisted video installation – a typically complex HD video collage featuring church choirs and news footage of a fire in a Woolworths store.

MOT International, W1 (020 7491 7208, motinternational.org), until Saturday

IN TOWN TO

MARTIN CREED
The Lexington, N1

The Turner-prize winning Work No. 227: the Light what it says on the tin up Islington with song

Book me in: Tickets a booked collect from T